We are pleased to announce that Kevin Norris has become a full partner in the company sharing all management responsibilities with Randy Schaefer, Bryan Schaefer and Bill Sestak. Kevin joined the company in 1997 and has worked his way up through the agency with his most recent position being Western Sales Manager. During his 24 years, he has been a vital part of the company's success using his hands on approach to increase sales with distributors and contractors. His expertise in these areas along with his new role in the management of the company will assist in our growth for years to come.

Please join us in congratulating Kevin on his promotion.
